Does your Commissioner for Oaths render legal advice?

Commissioner for Oaths · https://help.law.com.sg/faq/does-your-commissioner-for-oaths-render-legal-advice/

If you are signing a document, eg. affidavit, statutory declaration, before our Commissioner for Oaths, please note that no legal advice will be rendered. For any advice or issues relating to your document, please check with your recipient or the party that prepared the document, eg. your lawyers.

Please note that our Commissioner for Oaths will not be able to take oath from you if the document is prepared by our Commissioner or our office.

Prior to attending our office, please ensure that your document is prepared and complete. For example, if you are signing a statutory declaration form before our Commissioner, please ensure that all particulars and details of the form are duly filled and completed, and ready for execution.
