Probate Fees and How to Engage Us

Probate Procedures · https://help.law.com.sg/faq/how-can-i-engage-you-for-probate/

For legal fees on Probate matters in Singapore, please submit our Probate Quote form and we will provide you with our estimated fees. Fees are not fixed on this page because each estate differs in complexity.

How do I get a fee estimate for probate?

Submit the Probate Quote form. We will review your details and reply with our estimated fees for your Grant of Probate or Letters of Administration application.

How do I engage you for a probate application?

There are three ways to engage us:

1. Submit Probate Online, then book an appointment to meet our lawyer.
2. Book an appointment directly at book.law.com.sg/probate and bring the relevant documents with you.
3. Upload your documents through our Probate Upload portal for review, then book an appointment with our lawyer.

Specific documents are required for probate matters. Please see our full guide on documents required for probate matters before your appointment.

What are the common probate documents to sign?

Depending on your matter, the common Court documents for Probate matters are:

1. Administration Oath
2. Consent of Co-Administrator
3. Renunciation of Executor

4. Renunciation of Right and Title to Letters of Administration
5. Affidavit of Due Execution by a Subscribing Witness to the Will
6. Affidavit of Foreign Law
7. Affidavit of Domicile
8. Supporting Affidavit (with or without Schedule of Assets)
9. Supplementary Affidavit with Schedule of Assets
10. Supporting Affidavit for Dispensation of Sureties
11. Administration Bond
12. Affidavit(s) requested by the Court

We will advise you which of these apply to your application. If you are outside Singapore, see our guide on signing probate documents overseas.

How do I pay?

We are not GST-registered, so no GST is charged on our fees. We accept PayNow, NETS or cash at our office, and contactless payment is preferred. Credit card payments are standardised for all our services: payment by credit card at our office attracts a 4% surcharge, and payment by Stripe credit card link attracts a 5% surcharge.
