ABOUT US

Quaich Bar was first established in 2007, at Grand Copthorne Waterfront and today, identifies itself as a whisky institute and hub with the aim of being the epicenter for all information around the remarkable ‘water of life’.

A regular pit-stop for globally acclaimed distillers in search of quality whisky tastings and masterclasses, we continue to seek new ways to share the secrets of whisky indulgence – perfect for those on the hunt for more immersive methods of savoring the golden spirit.

For fellow whisky lovers, there is an exquisite collection of more than 500 whiskies to savour by the glass, including an outstanding inventory of boutique, old and vintage bottlings in-house. Our Whisky Specialists are also ever ready to share an admiration and profound expertise on whisky.
