Pirates Ahoy! Set Sail on a Swashbuckling Adventure This School Holiday

Singapore, March 1, 2025 – Hoist the sails and prepare to set course for an epic pirate adventure! The Royal Albatross proudly presents the return of its highly anticipated school holiday programme – Pirates Ahoy! On the High Seas III – happening March 15 and 22.

Back by popular demand, this immersive pirate experience aboard Singapore's only luxury tall ship transforms young adventurers into fearless buccaneers, offering a fun, family-friendly voyage filled with interactive games, thrilling challenges, and unforgettable memories!

A Real-Life Pirate Adventure Awaits!

For an exciting morning, kids and families will embark on a an-hour and a half high-seas escapade aboard the Royal Albatross, right from the heart of Sentosa. From learning the ropes of pirate life to participating in swashbuckling activities, young recruits will train like real buccaneers, complete pirate missions, and earn their stripes as official Young Cadets!

"We are thrilled to bring Pirates Ahoy! back for its third edition," said Peter L Pela, CEO and owner of Tall Ship Adventures. "Parents and kids have loved this unique experience, and we're excited to continue creating an immersive, educational, and wildly fun adventure at sea!"

A Family Experience Like No Other

With storytelling, pirate-themed challenges, and breathtaking ocean views, Pirates Ahoy! isn't just for the little ones—it's an experience for the whole family to enjoy together! Parents and kids alike will get to bond over shared adventures while soaking in the stunning scenery aboard the Royal Albatross.

"Parents have been asking for another Pirates Ahoy!, as it's a fantastic way to create special family memories," added Peter L Pela. "This year, we've made the experience even more exciting—every young buccaneer who completes their training will be awarded a special 'Young Cadet' certificate, celebrating their bravery on the high seas!"
